FROM HITTY MAGINN.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

COLUMBUS, KY., Sept. 15, 1869.

The St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad has recently been extended to Belmont, directly opposite this place, and known as the scene of General Grant's first engagement during the rebellion. Trains are now running regularly, connecting with trains on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. As soon as facilities for transferring cars are completed it is intended to run sleeping cars through by this route from St. Louis to New Orleans and Mobile.

For this most important railroad connection St. Louis and the whole region west of the Mississippi is greatly indebted to the energy of Hon. Thos. Allen, the President and principal stockholder in the road. It passes through one of the most wonderful mineral regions on the globe, and strikes the Mississippi at a point where it is always open and free from ice.

The northern part of this line has much to interest the traveler. For the first twenty-five miles it skirts the river, passing in succession Carondelet, St. Louis' most important suburb, with its pleasant homes and smoking furnaces, Jefferson Barracks, a famous military post, till within a few years the frontier has crept so far to the westward as to make it of comparatively little value, and a number of insignificant stations. The scenery is charming, the high bluffs on the right crowned here and there with pretty cottages and villas, and overlooking the river for miles. After passing Sulphur Springs, famous for water nasty enough to make the fortune of any well organized watering place, the road abruptly leaves the river. The next town of note, and a pretty one, too, is De Soto, in Jefferson county.

The road has two branches, the first at Mineral Point leading to Potosi, where lead is extensively mined and smelted; the other at a little station to which the name of Bismarck has recently been given, and leading to Iron Mountain and Pilot Knob. This was originally the main track. Everybody has heard of Iron Mountain, and almost everybody has seen specimens of it. As a mountain it is insignificant, but as a mass of ore it is a wonder worth a visit. About a thousand men are employed here in connection with the mines and furnace.

Pilot Knob is a conspicuous elevation between 600 and 700 feet in height. From the south-west it presents the appearance of a perfect cone, terminating in a sharp rocky summit. It is easily ascended by paths, or by inclined planes which extend almost to the top. The prospect from the top is magnificent,

The Valley of which Pilot Knob forms part of the northern boundary bears the name of Arcadia. It reminds me of some parts of Connecticut, from which State it was partially settled many years ago. This circumstance has not been without decided effect on the character of its people, and has, perhaps, contributed to develop its natural attractions.

There is so much to interest tourists in this vicinity, in its natural scenery, delightful climate and extraordinary mineral resources, that it is a pity some first class accomodations are not provided for them. The Arcadian simplicity which puts you in a bed with only one sheet, in a room without soap or towels, and which rouses you, after a sleepless night of unintermitted warfare with the other occupants of your apartment, to a sumptuous repast of cold mackerel, off a dirty table cloth, I may honestly say, I don't hanker after.

Shepherd Mountain west of Pilot Knob, and a little higher, contains a remarkable vein of magnetic iron ore.

Southward from Bismarck, the main train passes mine La Moete where there are also extensive lead works. Beyond this the country is destitute of interest, being almost unsettled and unimproved.

Ten or twelve miles west from Cairo, at Charleston, Mississippi county, you cross the abandoned Cairo and Fulton railroad. This will be put in order and relaid by the Iron Mountain Company, who will thus connect with Cairo. Should the Mobile and Ohio railroad be extended north, as it should be, to the mouth of the Ohio, this may become the direct route.

Columbus, from which I write, presents the characteristic appearance of a Kentucky town, being a shabby, gone-to-seed, out-at-elbows collection of shanties in every stage of dilapidation. In Cheyenne, Omaha, or even in Chicago shanties are pardonable, for they indicate a condition of thrift, enterprise and growth. But in an old town like this they have neither architectural grace, nor cheerful associations to redeem them, but indicate only decay, sloth, and the meanest kind of poverty.

Columbus shows its culture and literary taste by calling its hotel "St. Elmo," which is also characteristic. This is not the first time literature has given a name to a hotel.

The industry of Columbus is diversified. Aesthetic, perhaps, rather than productive. Of the two men I have seen usefully employed, one was affectionately holding up a knock-kneed poultry-crate, and the other drawing a baby. All the rest appear to keep saloons.

From such a city, even Cairo is a delightful change, and you welcome the depar ture of the ram-shackly old contrivance, called the Gen. Anderson, that plies between these two ports. She is exquisitely adapted to the purpose, is condemned, and leaks at top and bottom. Prudent people who travel on her, carry an umbrella under one arm and a life-preserver under the other. But as no one could ever, probably, be induced to land at either place, unless the boat was very uncomfortable, her advantages for this route are manifest. Of Cairo I have heretofore written. I can only add, that if you want to see Cairo to advantage, you had better go there via Columbus.

AN old trapper, who crossed the western plains thirty-five years ago, says that there was no grass at all, but only a few sage bushes and cacti. Now there is a thin soil formed over the soil and gravel, and grass covers the entire surface. It appears that this enriching process goes on faster and faster every year. This is why so many people have been astonished at not finding any "Great American Desert," and conclude that it was only a myth. The truth is that it did exist, but has passed away.

GLEANINGS.

THE Jenkins farm, Green Bottom, Cabell county, Virginia, a farm extending nine miles on the Ohio river, is said to have produced 81,000 bushels of wheat this season.

RUMOR says that the unveiling of the statute of Vanderbilt on the 28th inst. is to be made the occasion for a union of the Central and Hudson River roads, and the declaration of the long-promised scrip dividend.

ELIHU GREGG, who was convicted and sentenced to be hung on the 3d of this month for the burning of the Court House of Preston county, West Va., has had his case taken to the Court of Appeals and been granted a new trial.

A CITIZEN of Zanesville has so far perfected an invention which he calls the "direct acting paddle" gaining "the direct movement of a plain board against the water," that he has applied it to a small steamer now in use on the Muskingum River, and invites the examination of steamboatmen.

THE Ohio State Fair, which closed Friday of last week, was the most successful, in all respects, of any yet held. The number of admission tickets sold was 79,000 against 75,000 at Dayton, in 1867, the highest of any preceding year. The aggregate receipts were from $28,000 to $30,000. The number of entries was 4,300 about 1,000 more than any former year.

THE entire village of Two Rivers, in Wisconsin, was recently sold for $40,000. It contains one of the most extensive tanneries in the State, thirty-one dwellings, school house, store, hotel, blacksmith, wagon and shoemaker shops, all of which, except the school house, were included in the sale, together, with 4,000 cords of bark and 2,000 acres of hemlock lands. The purchaser is a Mr. Vogel, residing in Europe.

THE mystery connected with the Kreutz tragedy at Cincinnati has probably been cleared up. The pistol found near the bloody scene has been identified by a gunsmith as having been recently sold to the deceased, and this, taken in connection with the fact that Kreutz made his will some two weeks previous to the occurrence, remarking at the time to members of his family that life was very uncertain, leaves scarcely a doubt that he destroyed his own life.

A COLORED man named Lewis Carter, buried by the caving in of a well in the village of Jamaica, N. Y., was rescued after being under ground thirty-six hours, twenty-six of which he was without nourishment of any kind. After his head was uncovered, it required six hours to extricate him from between the large stones and dirt by which he was wedged in. He was not injured beyond a few slight bruises, and was able to walk home soon after his rescue.

A CORRESPONDENT who has just returned from a journey through Virginia, gives a very unfavorable account of the condition of the crops in that State, which have been much injured by the dry weather. He predicts that, unless some measures are immediately taken to ward it off, a famine must result, and advises the people to immediately turn their attention to preparing and sending to market the sumac, tan bark and lumber that abound in some parts of the State.

A MRS. HALLENBECK, residing in Springfield, Ohio, recently endeavored to capture a burglar who had entered her house, exhibiting rare heroism. She was aroused by the noise made by the thief, and after searching through several rooms she at last discovered him secreted in the pantry. Instead of screaming and retreating, she seized the fellow and valiantly endeavored to make a prisoner of him. The burglar struggled with equal energy, and it was only when he began beating her with a bottle, which he caught up, that Mrs. H. gave the alarm, arousing the household, but too late to effect the capture of the intruder.

A LITTLE domestic story comes from Paris. Madame de B—'s husband was away on official duty in Algeria, when she, to consummate a liason with a youth of thirty, proclaimed his death, mourned three weeks and then married the lover. But suddenly Mr. B— returned, was kindly received by his wife, and murdered on the staircase by a hired ruffian. How to dispose of the body. Husband No. 2 would take it to the river in a sack; he did so, toppled it over the bridge and found himself dragged after it into the water and drowned. Madame B— had deftly sown the sack to his coat. He told no tales and she went traveling the next day with another friend.

A NOVEL FIRE ALARM has been introduced into a hotel in Chicago at a cost of $1,000. It operates as follows: In the office of the hotel is a register or dial, with a number on a sort of key, representing each room in the house. Above the dial is a relay, such as is used in ordinary telegraphing, and above that is an alarm bell, connected with the wires, which lead to all the rooms; in each room is a bulb, containing mercury, so gauged that when the heat in the apartment reaches 110 degs. the mercury rises, touches the wire and the circuit is completed. This rings the alarm in the office and at the same time indicates the room in which is the undue quantity of heat.

THE New York Tribune correspondent tells how the good people of the Dominion turned out in their best all along the roads to give Prince Arthur a royal reception and a royal lot of speeches; but when he came he looked so much like any other lad that they did not know him. A bishop drives out to meet him, looks at the buggy, and passed on. The volunteer artillery stand by their guns, he passes, and they don't salute. One side of a bridge has been specially reserved for the royal crossing; the Prince comes to it, and a sentry turns him away. It is all very funny, but the misery of it is that the Canadians found out their mistake, ran after their guest with all their might, and made him hear the speeches after all.

THE project of making New Orleans a walled town by building a complete line of earthwork around it has been revived, and is seriously urged by the press and many prominent citizens of that city. The necessity for it is the danger to which the city is exposed by the annual inundations and crevasses on the lower Mississippi. The plan that meets with most favor is to construct a levee from Carrollton directly across to the lake, thence along the lake shore to a point just below the city, thence by a straight line to the river bank near the barracks. There would be locks for the passage of the two canals, and the work would be made broad enough for a railroad and carriage way, reveting the lake front with rock, to resist the action of the waves.

STATE ITEMS.

OZIAS POTTER, lately deceased of Williamsport, bequeathed about $70,000 to the poor of that city.

THE Venango county grand jury have presented that part of the Franklin branch railway between Reno and Franklin as a nuisance.

MRS. EVANS, one of the sufferers by the Avondale disaster, loses eight of her family—her father, husband, three sons and three brothers.

SAMUEL STORM, of Penn township, Centre county, recently narrowly escaped being squeezed to death by a large black-snake, which attacked him as he was examining potato vines, enveloping his body and arms before he could offer any resistance. A faithful dog, however, attacked the monster and drove it off, thus saving his master's life. Mr. S. attempted to follow and kill the snake, but fell exhausted.

THE inquest in the case of Adam King, whose dead body was found on French Creek flats, a few miles below Meadville, Crawford county, returned a verdict that he "came to his death by the hands of some person to the jury unknown by means of blows inflicted upon his head and afterwards thrown into French Creek from the dock street bridge." The Mayor of Meadville has offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the murderer.

AT a recent special meeting of the council of Chester, Delaware county, the President in the performance of his official duties, while opening proposals for street grading, addressed to the Chairman of the Street Committee, found a check for fifty dollars on a Philadelphia bank, in favor of Dr. J. L. Forward, with the "compliments of Armstrong & Co." The Republican says of the circumstance "we confess that during our experience in public life we never witnessed so shameless an attempt at bribery."

THE Soldiers' Monument, dedicated at Norristown on the 18th, has three bases, on the top of which is a cubical block of marble, four feet each way, on which is engraved the names of five hundred and fifty-seven soldiers and sailors, who fell in the rebellion. Above this rises a shaft fifteen feet high, on which are carved the four emblems of the service—infantry, cavalry, artillery and navy. The whole is surmounted by an eagle, cut from marble, with extended wings five feet from tip to tip. The whole height is thirty-five feet. It is located in the public square, and was gotten up exclusively by the ladies at a cost of about five thousand dollars.

FOREIGN NEWS AND RUMORS.

MR. JOHN JAY visited Admiral Radford at Trieste last week and spends this week at Voslan, after which he will take up his residence at Vienna.

THE Archbishop of Bamberg has forbidden his clergy to visit coffee and beer houses, as they have been in the habit of so doing to the neglect of their flocks.

IN Czegedin, in Hungary, a giantess of three hundred and fifty pounds in weight has just been led to the altar. She allows herself to be seen only for money.

THE King of Prussia, an ardent Protestant, but one who believes in encouraging religious feeling in every form, has given ten thousand thalers to the Roman Catholic church at Ems.

A FORESTER in the district of Jampoi, in the Russian government of Podolia, has discovered a vein of silver, and it is believed that the whole country as far as the district of Dniester, in Bessarabia, is rich in copper and silver.

A LONDON paper tells of two rival traveling dentists who arrived together at a fair. One hoisted a banner inscribed 'Facile Princeps;" the other immediately 'painted up, on his booth, "Facile Forceps," and drew the crowd.

THE public baths of Rosa de Faria at Valencia, Spain, recently gave way and fell into the river, when full of bathers, causing many to perish, especially children. No Democrats were hurt; they don't bathe.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A MARRIED pair in the Palatinate were about to make a journey by cars from Germersheim to Durkheim, and missed the train. The man began to abuse the wife; she returned his abuse with interest, which exasperated him so much that he pulled out a pocket pistol and shot his wife and himself.

THE Velocipede has come into use in the Hanover Postoffice Department. A foot postman between Celle and Bergenbel-Celle, who had to walk a distance of about five hours, purchased a velocipede at his own cost, after gaining the permission of the postal authorities, and now makes the distance in less than four hours. The North German postal authorities are now discussing if this means of transportation cannot be made of further use.

FRAUD in India has now gone as far as the manufacture of wild beasts, for the purpose of cheating the government. Premiums are paid by the Indian government for slaying wild beasts; so tigers, bears and leopards are made to go as far as they can. First, the skin is sent in, with a skull of wood fitted into the head; secondly, the real skull is brought forward; and sometimes, as a third resource, the real tiger or bear is dispensed with, and the skull of a hog or jackal is tendered, provided with false teeth and covered with pigskin, moulded on a real tiger's head. Some of the monsters were beasts of straw. The skulls are now ordered to be smashed and the skins to be sold.

Antiquities at Newport.

The Newport (R. I.) News says:

"The sale of antique furniture, pictures, &c., at the Riddel Cottage, on Bellevue avenue, for the past two or three days, has called together quite a number of relic hunters, who have done some lively bidding for articles of special interest. It is not often that so many things of this character are found in a single collection, and the house, when opened to the public, was a really a museum of rich and variable curiosities. We judge that the prices at which the things were sold was quite satisfactory to the owners.

"Among the things offered was a chair that belonged to Cotton Mather, and various pieces of furniture that date back to a period before the revolutionary war. An iron hammer, well covered with rust, that 'came over in the Mayflower,' was also disposed of. There was an old clock, two hundred and thirty-seven years of age, and original paintings, some of them from noted artists of the olden time, which are under the hammer as we go to press."

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of Pittsburgh Gazette,
Monday, Sept. 20, 1869.

Business appeared to be rather dull to-day, more so than usual, though there will doubtless be an improvement during the week, and, beside, there is every prospect at present of a good fall and winter trade. The receipts of grain of all kinds appears to be falling off somewhat, and with an improved demand, the feeling is rather stronger and the demand somewhat better, though; with the exception of oats, prices remain unchanged. Flour is quiet and dull, but the arrivals appear to be falling off somewhat, also, and the stock, although fully equal to the demand, is by no means large. Fruit of all kinds is in good supply and cheap, and in many instances it is doubtful whether shippers realize more than will pay for cost of transportation, commission &c. Most of the fruits, sweet potatoes, &c., &c., arriving here from the east, is shipped on fast freight trains, and while it comes through nearly as quickly, it is carried much cheaper than the express companies would carry it, and this is a very important item to both shippers, dealers and consumers.

APPLES—Dull and in good supply but unchanged, ranging from $1,50@2,50 @3 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is in good supply and dull but not quoted lower, salesat 30@33 cts. for prime to choice packed, and 35 for choice roll.

BERRIES—Season over,

CRANBERRIES—Sales prime of eastern cultivated at $12per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Is firm with considerable inquiry on western account, and we quote sales round lots at 29 to 29¼ cents, and 30@31 in small lots.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged, ranging from 14 to 16 cents, as to quality.

EGGS—Sales of fresh packed at 24.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

Office of Pittsburgh Gazette,
Monday, Sept. 20, 1869.

The oil market continues quiet, though unsettled, and very sensitive, while, compared with Saturday, prices have undergone no quotable change. Monday, however, is usually a quiet day, and it is probable that business will improve as the week advances, though it is not probable, that, in the present condition of affairs, the sales will be large; refiners generally are holding back in anticipation of a better margin, and it is not expected that they will sell, to any extent, until this has been secured. The shipments were again comparatively large to-day, aggregating nearly 3,000 bbls.

We have another addition to make to our report of the receipts of crude oil by Allegheny river, on the recent rise, 3,700 bbls for Frosyth Bro. This added to what was previously reported, makes a total of 34,714 bbls by riyer.

CRUDE.

Sales 500 bbls spot, at 14¾; 1000 do, at 14¾; 1000 on cars at Venango City, at $5,85; also $200 was paid for the privilege of placing or not, 1000 bbls between now and January 15, at 14. Fourteen and three quarter cents seem to be the standard price for spot or seller this month.

REFINED.

Sale 1,000 each, September to December, at 32½; 500 each, October to December, inclusive, at 32¾; 1,000 October, last half, at 32¼; and 500 each, October to January, at 32¼; offers to sell November and December at 32¼.

RIVER NEWS.

The river has fallen about three inches since the date of our last report, and last night there was but little over 30 inches in the channel by the marks. Weather cloudy and hot, with indications at times of rain.

The New State departed, and the Julia No. 2, from Zanesville was expected in last night. She was detained by fog and low water, and was obliged to double trip it from Glass House. She will return again to-day.

The Maggie Hays continues to receive for St. Louis, and will leave on the first rise.

—The Sallie was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday. Capt. Stockdale contemplates placing the Sallie and Nick Wall, in the Pittsburgh and Louisville trade during the fall and winter.

—It is said that the "Capstan case" in which Capt. John S. McMillan and Hugh Campbell are plaintiffs and Capt. John Rhodes, defendant, will come up again some of these days soon. As this is a kind of test case, there is considerable interest attached to it.

—The St. Louis dispatch in noticing the Mooney—Garrett affair, says: We have no doubt the mate, Garrett, knocked Mooney down, and it is very probable he deserved it; and if he did, what blame can be attached to the Captains Hazlet, the owners of the boat, who were thousands of miles away? Many of our exchanges have written up this affair as if it was one of the most horrible outrages ever committed, and for some reason dragin the names of the owners, who are gentlemen, whose standing in the community as such is beyond reproach,

—The St. Louis Republican of Saturday says: We received a letter yesterday from Capt. Jas. Kerr, Jr., late clerk of the Great Republic, in which he says his original idea of quitting the boat at Memphis has been abandoned, and he will remain until her arrival at this port. Mr. Atkinson is now in possession of the Great Republic's office.

—The pilot of a Cincinnati steamboat tells the Cairo Bulletin the following story: The steamer K—— was slowly passing the Flint Island bar when the passengers detected a man in the act of drowning. The poor fellow splashed and spluttered in a style that seemed to increase the number of his arms and legs to about forty. Observing the near approach of a boat, he cried for help, implored assistance, and that right quickly, too, for he couldn't stand it more than another minute. The pilot observing the struggling man, and understanding the depth of the water, yelled out, "stand up, you blockhead, stand up!" The drowning man obeyed, and found that the water scarcely reached his hips. "Well by thunder!" was the ejaculation that was partly drowned by the screams of laughter from the lady and gentlemen passengers.

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 87¼.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 137⅛@137¼.

R. STOCKETT MATTHEWS, the orator and scholar of Maryland, will positively be present at the grand mass meeting to be held at City Hall on next Thursday evening. Let him have an old fashioned Republican greeting.

IT IS highly probable that Hon. COLUMBUS DELANO, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, will be present in this city on Friday evening next, to address a Republican meeting to be held in the Eleventh Ward School House. A warm and enthusiastic reception awaits him.

AFTER a warm and exciting discussion of the water question in the Select branch of City Councils yesterday afternoon, that body decided to purchase the Coleman property on the Allegheny river, for the establishment of the new reservoir and water works, thus adopting the action of the Water Committee as reported at last meeting. The subject did not reach the Common branch.

THE first four months of President GRANT's administration reduced the public debt by more than thirty-six millions of dollars. This closed the fiscal year of 1868-69. For the year following, which ends June 30th, 1870, the indications are now clear that the increased collection of customs and internal revenues, and the current retrenchment of expenses, will result in a surplus of not less than one hundred millions, to be applied to the abatement of the national obligations.

A NEW YORK Spanish journal, as the telegraph this morning informs us, threatens dire things to these United States if Spain be provoked to war against us in the solution of the Cuban question. Let the Government take heed and be warned, for the whole civilized world knows of Spain's great military power and strength, and if she directs her wooden ships against our iron clad navy, where, oh where, would go our commerce and seaport towns. Beware of mighty Spain!

A TELEGRAM published in these columns yesterday, announced that a crazy man had attacked and terribly beaten Mr. GEORGE W. JULIAN, a prominent and respectable citizen. According to the judicial rulings now prevailing in New York and Philadelphia, this dangerous lunatic could not have been committed to an asylum two days before or two days after the display of his violence unless his consent had first been obtained. This is running the conception of personal liberty to a most unwholesome excess.

WE SHOULD have been gratified to note a larger attendance of our citizens at the Wilkins Hall meeting, yesterday afternoon, for the relief of the Avondale sufferers. But it is comfortable to reflect, as we are quite sure that we have a right to, that, although our busy citizens could not spare the time to make this assemblage a mass meeting, their hands will be opened wide when humanity calls. The pecuniary total will foot up all right, before this work here is complete. The Mayor will receive and forward the contributions of all who accept the duty of charity for the afflicted and destitute as one of the commandments from Heaven.

IN COUNCILS yesterday a resolution was adopted requesting Hon. Mayor BRUSH to extend the freedom and hospitality of the city to the several hundred California pioneers who are shortly to honor us with a visit on their way to New York from San Francisco. We trust our liberal spirited and enterprising business men and manufacturers will discover that it is to their interests that the welcome should be worthy the guasts, and lend willing and generous co-operation to the Mayor and any Committee he may designate to assist him in sustaining our well founded reputation for warm and cordial hospitality.

AFTER all the bother made by a portion of the Eastern press in the interests of the Cuban revolutionary junta, it transpires that our Minister at Madrid has intervened no further than to tender the good offices of the Republic as a mediator for humanity's sake between Spain and her rebel colonists. No menaces have been intimated, nor any alternative presented, which could constitute a just cause for offence to the Spanish Government. Herein, the President and his advisers are faithfully in accord with the national sentiment. The people will neither support nor excuse an intervention of any sort which should involve us in war or in the addition of any sum to the public obligations. It is gratifying to observe that efforts to drag the Administration in advance of the popular judgment have, for the present, utterly failed.

THERE are strong points of contrast between Republican and Democratic newspapers of the highest type on the respective sides. Perhaps as strong a one as any is afforded in their treatment of opposing candidates. Leading Republican journals uniformly concede, and with genuine heartiness, whatever good there may be in a Democrat, brought forward for a representative position, while leading Democratic newspapers almost invariably find nothing in any Republican candidate which merits a kind word. This difference of treatment does not result from the difference in the two classes of candidates, but from the lack of genuine manliness in the Democratic organs. Their power consists in vituperation and abuse, and they would not know themselves, or be known by their followers, if they should make candid admissions as to the good personal characters and intellectual competency of the men they oppose.

THE Ohio Democracy propose to repeat the game upon which they succeeded two years ago. While making the canvass ostensibly on the Governor and other State offices, they are really aiming to secure the Legislative majorities again, herein being substantially the entire authority of the State. The gubernatorial office is one of but little more than nominal influence; its incumbent has no part in legislation, and but a limited sphere of Executive duty. Amusing their opponents with a show of a contest upon the State ticket, the tactics of the party are to be effectively directed to the continuance of their legislative control. A recent circular, intended to be secret, from the Democratic State Committee at Columbus, urges this policy upon the local committees. All the close and doubtful districts are to be secured by every needful means, including as much colonization as can be done without detection. In some of the stronger Republican districts, they hope to divide our friends, by nominating mixed tickets, largely composed of disaffected Republicans, if they can find such. Fortunately, the scheme has been seasonably exposed, and its failure is beyond a doubt.

Democratic tactics are the same in our own State also. Neither Mr. Packer nor his friends expect his election, but they are playing their game as if they were confident of their ability to carry a majority of the State Senate, if not of the other House. This game cannot win, if our friends in the Beaver and Bedford districts do their duty. And we are assured that they will.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Our readers will be interested in a brief reference to the state of the legislative canvass throughout the Commonwealth.

The Senate consists of thirty-three members, holding office for three years, one-third of whom go out each year. At the late session, we had a Republican majority of three. Of the eleven retiring Senators, seven were Republicans and four of the opposition. The resignation of Senator ERRETT, leaving a vacancy to fill this year, requires us to elect eight of the twelve Senators next month, to retain our recent majority. Of the twenty-one holding over, ten are Republicans and eleven Democrats. We are sure to carry the 5th, 16th, 17th, (double) 25th, 26th and 28th, and we have a much better prospect for gaining a Republican Senator in the 1st (Philadelphia) district, than for losing the 20th (Bedford) district, in which the local difficulties are substantially adjusted. Thus we may rely, with the use of our customary vigilance and a regular vote, upon at least seventeen Senators next winter. One is not a large majority, but it is sufficient for all practical purposes. We shall, however, elect Mr. Stutzman, in the Bedford district, and probably Mr. Watts will gain the Philadelphia district also.

In the last House, we had a majority of twenty-two. This cannot be revolutionized, unless our eleven members in Philadelphia be all lost, Elsewhere in the State, we can lose none. But the Philadelphia delegation, so far from being in any serious danger, will be more largely Republican next winter than it was last year. GEARY and the Republican State ticket look to that city this year for not less than four thousand majority, and we expect this to swing in at least two additional Republican Representatives.

We see, then the only ground upon which the opposition base their hopes of a legislative triumph. The Republicans of the Beaver and Bedford districts must do their duty. Lose both of these districts and we shall lose the control of the Senate, unless we recover it in Philadelphia. On the whole, we advise our friends to the safer course of carrying them both, and the Philadelphia district also.

EDUCATION OF THE PEOPLE.

The idea of popular government necessarily implies the democratic education of the people; that is, the education of each at the expense of the whole. This system of instruction has taken deep root in Pennsylvania, as also in a majority of the States. It encounters opposition from the Bishops and Clergy of the Catholic Church, who have been zealously engaged for some years past in devising a system of parochial schools for the children of members of that communion. In justification of this opposition it is urged that the public schools are "godless," which is to say that no special system of religion is taught therein in connection with the various branches of science.

Catholic authorities admit that the losses of that church by the secession of young people, mainly born in this country, is very large. This loss is attributed in whole or in part to the common school system. So far as that system is the natural outgrowth of popular government we comprehend that it contributes to the loss complained of; but only in the same sense as other features of republican institutions. We perceive, too, how keeping Catholic children out of the common schools, and giving over their secular instruction to persons appointed by church authorities, and amenable only to them, may conduce somewhat to their remaining Catholics. But, we nevertheless apprehend that the general sweep of those ideas which lie at the foundation of our government, cannot be essentially impeded by such a device.

It was announced from the pulpit of St. Paul's Cathedral, last Sunday, that Catholic parents would be required to withdraw their children from the public schools, and that refusal so to do would bring down on the recusants the censures of the Church. This is a pretty strong measure, but we do not see that outsiders have cause to be concerned at it. So long as a man voluntarily remains in connection with any society, religious or secular, he is bound to conform to all its legitimate rules and regulations. If he becomes seriously dissatisfied his remedy is in withdrawal.

If the point shall be pushed hereafter that the Catholic population, having taken their children out of the public schools, ought to have a ratable proportion of the school moneys, or else that the school tax ought to be abrogated, that question will have to be settled independently. The public school system will not be given up to suit any religious denomination, and while its advantages are open to all, none will be released from contributing for its support. So plain and indispensable a democratic principle cannot be relinquished to accommodate any class of citizens. But, this principle is so vital, and its reasonableness so apparent, that we cannot yet be persuaded that any organized effort will be made to overthrow it.

MINOR TOPICS.

IT IS proposed to endow and establish a chair of Journalism in Gen. Lee's College in Virginia. This is a step in the right direction. Lawyers, doctors and ministers of the Gospel are obliged to go through a special course of preparation before they are admitted to preach or practice, while journalists are frequently, as evinced by their imprint, altogether without the necessary, natural or acquired, ability and education which would fit them for their positions, although the profession of which they are members exerts a very much wider influence than either of the three others.

A FIRST-CLASS family carriage, of the best make, costs, in New York, $3,000. For $3,000 a neat farm could be bought in this State, or one the size of a kingdom might be purchased in the distant West. For that sum a moderate man could buy a cottage home in some of the outlying suburbs of any of our cities. Can any circumstances render it proper and in good taste for any man to ride about in the homestead of a poor family or in a western farm? Can any coach maker be justified in asking such a price for a coach? We suppose the answer will be that they can, but it does'nt seem quite right for anybody to pay it.

SOME of the softest and most graceful portraits we have ever seen, have recently been on exhibition in the windows of a couple of our leading picture dealers on Wood street. When we look at them we are always surprised and delighted at the delicate shading, the tender fading of light into shade, and at the softness of appearance, which resembles velvet. These pictures are produced by the use of that new material, the Russian Graphite, of which so much has been said and written during the past decade. Yet beautiful as the effect is, that is produced by the use of this material, we believe that but one artist in the world, and he a Pittsburgher, has had the genius to see what could be done with the new material and to put into practical use what he thus saw.

IT IS the fashion now, and probably will be for some time, to follow in the wake of the English Saturday Review, and abuse, maltreat, misrepresent and sneer at modern women. As far as the Saturday Review is concerned, we can not object to this, for the articles are bright and witty, and as they are written by a woman are probably good pen-photographs of the English women of the period. But when the American copyists endeavor to write original articles of the same nature, they throw themselves open to the ridicule of their countrymen, who, having mothers and sisters, wives and daughters, know that, with insignificant exceptions, American women are better and nobler than most American men, and that the women of our period compare well with those of the best periods of the world's history.

PHILADELPHIA depends for warmth in winter, and for fuel generally, upon anthracite coal, and $7,000 have been raised in that city for the benefit of the Avondale sufferers. Pittsburgh uses almost no anthracite, is utterly and entirely independent of the eastern coal regions, and her people, and if we were the selfish money-bound people we are accused of being, we might feel thoroughly satisfied in doing nothing to aid the widows and orphans of those unlucky dead. But Pittsburgh has never yet failed to dip a very large hand into a wide opened purse when worthy charity appeared, and though no return may be looked for, though no interest may accrue upon the principal thus invested, we have little doubt that Pittsburgh will in this, as in every case, fully sustain her reputation, and contribute liberally towards dashing the frightful prospect of starvation from before those hapless widows and orphans.

UNPLEASANT as some of our Stockton Avenue correspondents find their mortar-bed, and unjust as it doubtless seems to them to be that they should pay largely increased special taxes because the value of property a mile away has been improved, there are yet few persons even on that neglected thoroughfare who could not have enjoyed that part of the Allegheny Park which is already presentable, if they had been fortunate enough to behold it on Sunday night, when the moon in its fullness lighted up the ever changing throng, or silvered the bending jets and flying spray of the beautiful fountain which now adorns the junction of the North and East commons. For years the advocates of the improvement of the Allegheny Commons were met with the assertion that the people did not want a park and would'nt know how to use it if they had one. Considering this fact, the celerity with which the people have learned to use one is truly marvellous.

PETROLEUM ITEMS.

THE Titusville Register of the 18th says:

About two weeks ago a new well was struck on the Niagara Oil Company's tract, Cherrytree run. It has since been pumped steadily, and now yields ten barrels daily.

There has been a slight lull in the excitement at Parker's Landing on account of a dearth of new "strikes." Within the next ten days, however, from twelve to fifteen wells will be completed and tested. If only a moderate degree of success attends the testing of these wells, the excitement will undoubtedly be renewed.

Petroleum has been discovered on Bear river, Wyoming Territory, and extensive preparations are making for its development by experienced miners from Pennsylvania. The oil is black and about 28 deg. gravity.

Probably the most important new well that has been struck within the last two months, both with regard to the extension of the producing territory and the quantity of oil obtained, is the well on Kean run, owned by Messrs. Arnold & Phinney, to which we have previously alluded. This well is, without doubt, on a continuation of the narrow belt or vein running north by west from the Vera & Blake well on the J. Pierson farm. This vein was traced through the J. Pierson, Niagara and Baney farms; but a further continuation of it was not found until the Arnold & Phinney well was struck, although about $40,000 or $50,000 was expended in prospecting the territory south of the Baney farm in search of it. This well is located on the Mallory farm and on Kean run, about a half mile from its confluence with Cherrytree run. It is only twelve feet in the oil bearing sand rock. Pumping was commenced on Thursday night, and next day the production was at the rate of sixty barrels daily. By the striking of this well at least one hundred acres of territory, on which 25 to 75 barrell wells can be obtained, have been added to the Cherrytree run district.

Interesting Presentation.

The Union Depot was the scene of a pleasant presentation ceremony, last evening. The affair was in the hands of the friends, together with the employees under charge of J. H. Jones Esq.. Master Carpenter Western Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The gentleman has been connected with the road for the last seven years and and by his urbanity as a man and skilled as a mechanic, has won the respect and confidence of al, in token of which ho was made the recipient of a handsome sewing machine and elegant cabinet organ. The sewing machine purchased of Colonel James Espy, corner of Market street and Fifth avenue, is a superb specimen of the celebrated American Button hole overseaming pattern, with mahogany cabinet case, bronze plate, and highly finished—one of the finest articles of the kind we have ever seen. The cabinet organ, of the Mason & Hamlin pattern, of which Messrs. Mellor & Hoene are sole agents in this city, with five stops in imitation of different instruments, and the human voice, tremolo—the most perfect imitation of the human voice—was enclosed in an elegant rosewood case, beautifully polished, and bearing the inscription: "Presented to J. H. Jones' as a token of respect by his friends, and employes of the Western Division P. R. R."

The presentation ceremony occurred in the ladies' parlor of the hotel, John H. Kerr, Esq., in behalf of the donors tendering the testimonials, in a neat speech in which he referred in complimentary terms to the position which Mr. Jones had so ably filled, and testified to the general esteem in which he was held by officers, employees and all with whom he had intercourse. The recipient modestly expressed his gratitude and thanks for the expression of good will and respect, and hoped that future relations might be as pleasant as the past had been, and that all might continue to work together hereafter with mutual love and respect.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, Mr. C. C. Mellor tested the organ in a few choice selections to the satisfaction of all, after which the company adjourned to the spacious dining hall and sat down to an elegant and bounteous repast prepared under the supervision of Mr. E. S. Unger, the worthy host, who received a flattering vote of thanks at the conclusion of the entertainment. The company finally adjourned, after spending some time in pleasant social intercourse with "Auld Lang Syne," rendered in a style which forcibly impressed the pleasant occasion upon the remembrances of all who had the good fortune to be present.

The address of welcome was delivered by the Grand Master of California and responded to by Mr. Farnsworth.

—The oil dock of Lombard, Ayers & Co., North river, caught fire Saturday evening, and was believed to have been extinguished, but it again broke out at midnight, and destroyed a tank containing 1,000 gallons of crude petroleum, which, together with the oil previously burned, entailed a loss of twenty thousand dollars.

—The Commercial Bank of Bristol, R. I., which has been under control of the State Commissioners, because of the Cashier's irregularities, has been enjoined by the Supreme Court, and a receiver appointed to wind up its affairs. It is a State institution and has no circulation.

—Dr. D. Townsend, a well known physician of Boston, died Monday, aged 76.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

A DEFENSIVE MEDICINE.

"In time of peace prepare for war," is a sound military maxim. "Let not the sickly season find you unprepared," is an equally good rule in medical jurisprudence. The man must be made of iron who finds himself at the close of summer as strong as at its commencement. Such a phenomenon is rare, even among the most robust of the human family. Muscular and constitutional vigor oozes out of us in the broiling weather of July and August, and few of us, at the opening of the Fall, are in the best possible condition to defy the unhealthy influences of the season.

Fever and ague and billious remittent fevers, together with a variety of complaints that affect the digestive organs, the liver and the bowels, form a portion of the autumn programme. Bear in mind that exhaustion invites these disorders, and that staminal vigor enables the system to repel them. "To be weak is to be miserable," says Satan to his defeated legions, in "Paradise Lost," and the axiom is correct, though it comes from an evil source.

Ho! then, ye weak and feeble, fortify yourselves against the invisible enemy that invades the Autumnal air: The best defence against miasma is a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This rare vegetable tonic will improve your appetite, stimulate your digestion, give firmness to your nerves, invigorate your muscular fibre, regulate your secretions, cheer your spirits, and put your entire physique in perfect working order. It is easily done. The standard tonic and alterative which will recuperate and build you up, is not "bad to take," but, on the contrary, a pleasant medicine.

See, however, that you have the genuine article. There are imitations and counterfeits in the market, and they are all worthless or deleterious. Bear in mind that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold only in glass, (never by the gallon or cask), and that each bottle bears a label surmounted by a vignette of St. George and the Dragon, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, Sept. 20, 1869.

The Government bond market was steady and strong to-day on higher quotations of gold, and easier. Money transactions, however, are limited.

So long as gold keeps at present quotations there is little desire to sell Governments by permanent investors. Lower gold quotations, however, would tend to press bonds on the market to make room for the securities of railroad, bridge, canal and municipal improvements. Of the latter class, a large amount has been offered recently and found favor with the public, more on account of their cheapness, when compared with Government securities, and and their greater productions.

Gold opened strong at 137 early in the morning on account of the warlike rumors spread, and sold up to 137½, from which point it receded to 137⅛, closing at 137¼. If it was not for the tight money market gold would sell at much higher quotations, but the high rates for carrying gold prevents large purchases being made with a view of a good profit.

Stocks have slightly improved, but do not show much strength, and are apt to decline still further.

In our local securities there is a bull at present. Allegheny Valley bonds are offered at 85, Steubenville and Indiana at 75, Pennsylvania Railroad stocks 56¼, Birmingham gass at 28, East Birmingham 8 per cent. bonds, about 90, City fives about 75, fours 62, St. Clair street bridge 48 to 51.

Money in demand, and business improving.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, Sept. 20, 1869.

CATTLE.

That the market to-day, was a hard one on owners of cattle, was pretty generally conceded, and all grades with the exception of the very best, ruled from a ¼@½ lower, compared with last week. Commonish cattle were very abundant, every pen about the yards being full, and buyers of this kind of stock had no difficulty in getting all they wanted at the reduction above noted. Extra fat steers, such as our best butchers are accustomed to killing, sold up pretty well to last week's prices, 7¼@7½, though the great proportion of the sales were under seven cts., and we doubt whether the average price would exceed 5½ cts., as there were, as will be seen by reference to our drove notes, a large number sold at from 3@4, and 4½.

The offerings were unusually large to-day, reaching 1,150 head, and the supply being considerably in excess of the demand, quite a number were left over unsold. Of those on sale 36 cars were from the west, as follows: Chicago, 8 cars; Crestline, 7; Mansfield, 4; Cincinnati, 3; Forrest, 1; Marion, 1; Degraff, 1; Ada, 1; Lima, 2; Bellair, 2; Orrville, 1. The balance of the cattle on sale were driven in from adjoining counties, and the number was large.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

Market a shade firmer, with a decreased number on sale, compared with last week, and as a general thing the quality was much better. The were about 2,050 on sale, and it is probable that when the number is taken into consideration, there were more good sheep than has been on sale here at any time this year, As will be seen, quite a number of sales were made as high as $4@4,50 per head, and $5 per cwt. Lambs, also, were of better quality, and sold at from $1 to $3,50@3,75 per head. Following is the report of sales.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

HINTS ABOUT WORK FOR SEPTEMBER.

Apples.—Windfalls are full of worms, usually. Pick them up regularly, and feed to the pigs, all not fit for cider, or at least for vinegar.

Field Crops.—Beans should be pulled as soon as the pods seems well matured. They will cure in a loft better than in the field, and a few may be cured on a barn floor. [illegible]n the field, stack them between [illegible], to keep off the ground, and thrash when dry.

Potatoes.—Dig as soon as ripe, provided there is not much rot among them, in which case use judgment. If they can be dug and sold before they rot much, well; if they can be fed with profit, do so. Do not put them into the cellar to become a mass of corruption, and make it necessary to overhaul and throw them away by and by.

Corn.—Pulling corn fodder is a southern practice which we do not approve of. If it seems best to pull leaves this year, do not do it until the grain is glazed. Topping is much less objectionable—in fact, we do not object to it in the case of large, coarse-stalked varieties. This, too, should never be done till the glazing of the kernel shows that the grain has its full size. No doubt it is a damage to the corn, but there is proportionate gain in the feed, which is very valuable. Cutting up at the ground has much in its favor. The field is as good as cleared at one operation, and may be plowed and sown at once if desired—provided the stalks are made on as few lines as possible, standing very close. Taking twenty-five rows the longest way through the field, it is no very great labor to close on the middle row, taking twelve hills on each side, and so make a stalk to every hill on this row—leaving plow lands of one hundred feet or thereabouts in width, which should be plowed "inward" or "right about." The grain must be well glazed before the stalks are cut. It loses scarcely perceptibly in weight, while the stalks and leaves are saved. One day's or half a day's drying after being cut up will save the fodder from injury from severe frosts, which would otherwise render it flavorless and of little value as fodder.

Corn Foddder.—Cattle and horses will eat corn leaves and husks well; they will eat almost the whole of the toppings, but unless it is cooked they will not eat all but the stalks. However, if cut up and soaked, they will eat a good portion of them, especially if dusted with a little meal or oil cake. What they refuse is worth, we presume, half as much as manure as it would be if eaten. The immense waste of feeding corn fodder on the ground is, that but a comparitively small part is eaten, and the rest is utilized as manure to but a small extent. Corn fodder, sown for the purpose, should be cut as close as possible, bound in small bundles, with new rye straw, and set up against rails laid on crossed stakes, or in crotches against a fence, or in open shooks, to dry. It will not mould enough to hurt it unless it lies long flat upon the ground.

Roots.—Beets, carots, parsnips and turnips, make astonishing growth this month. Keep them clear of weeds, which sap the very life of the soil. It is an excellent plan to run a one-horse subsoil plow between the rows. If crowded, roots of all kinds may be thinned to advantage, and the surplus sent to market or fed to stock. Hogs will grow fast on the diet, though it is not very fattening.

Seeding Down.—Grass may be sown alone at this season, or a little earlier perhaps, better than at any other. Prepare the ground well, giving thorough harrowing and top dressing, picking off the stones; sow the seed and roll. A bushel of oats harrowed in before the grass seed is sown will afford the young plants the protection of a fine mulch during the winter, and unless the season is very mild, will be thoroughly dead and out of the way when spring comes, making good manure.

Saving Seed.—Seed corn should be marked before it is cut up, by selecting the best ear where two or more are on a stalk, and tying strings tightly around them. They will thus be found and thrown to one side at husking. Seed potatoes should be selected from those that have healthy stocks and ripen first. It is very well to go through and dig from hills before the general digging. If the whole crop is to be saved for seed, or if it be desirable to keep it pure, go through carefully, and dig any suspicious or peculiar looking hills. Seeds of all kinds should be kept where it is dry, in nets, baskets, loosely covered pails, or in net bags, or tied together and suspended. Close vessels are often fatal to seeds, causing them to mould or heat.

A Plan for a Corn Crib.—I built a corn crib, a few years ago, which I think, for convenience, has but few equals. It has never failed to keep corn perfectly, and is likewise rat-proof. It can easily be filled without the ordinary way of making doors in the roof, which are so difficult to make tight. The dimensions are as follows: Length, thirty feet; width, four feet at sills and five feet at plates, with a projection in the middle six feet long across the crib. The main posts are eight feet from top of sills to top of plates. The posts to the projection are six feet four inches. The sills are four by six, and should be of some durable wood, as they are exposed more to the weather than the rest of the frame. It stands upon seventeen posts, set in the ground, fixed in the usual way, with tin milk-pans inverted over them, which should have the wire rims cut off, as rats sometimes catch by these and ascend.

The plates are three by seven inches; the posts four by six inches The size of the timber is immaterial; some would not think mine large enough, but it answers all purposes. The roof is twenty-inch cypress shingles and extends a foot over the eaves. The sides of the crib are of pine lath two inches wide, put up and down, just wide enough to keep in the smallest ears. The middle part is covered with pine boards, with a door in one side. In filling the crib, loose boards are used to keep the corn in each end, leaving the middle space for shelling the corn and storing the cobs, which we consider are worth saving.—Country Gentleman.

Rats.—Among the many remedies employed to reduce their number, the following are the most efficacious.

Take two ounces of carbonate of barytes, and mix it with one pound of suet or tallow, place portions of this within their holes and about their haunts. It is greedily eaten, produces great thirst, and death ensues after drinking. This is a very effectual poison, bscause it is both tasteless and odorless.

Take one ounce of finely powdered arsenic, one ounce of lard, mix these into a paste with meal, put it about the haunts of rats. They will eat it greedily.

Make a paste of one ounce of flour, one-half gill of water, one drachm of phosphorus. Or, two ounces of lard, half a drachm of phosphorus and one ounce of flour. Or one ounce of flour, two ounces of powdered cheese crumbs, and one-half drachm of phosphorus, add to each of these mixtures a few drops of oil of Rhodium and spread this on thin pieces of bread like butter; the rats will eat this greedily, and is a sure poison.

In mixing either of the above poisons, care should be taken that the naked hand does not come in contact with them, as they sometimes produce irritable sores.

What an old, experienced farmer once told us.—That the success of farming is in experience.

That to ask a man's advice is not stooping, but often of much benefit.

That to keep a place for everything, and everything in its place, saves many a step, and is pretty sure to lead to good tools, and to keep them in order.

That kindness to stock, like good shelter, is a saving of fodder.

That to fight weeds is to favor grain, and do justice to your neighbor.

That in making home agreeable, you keep your boys out of the city.

That it is a good thing to grow into farming—not jump into it.

That it is a good thing to keep an eye out to experiment, and note all, good and bad.

That it is a good rule to sell your grain when it is ready.

That the first mellow soil in spring is your mellowest, and should first be put in.

That great changes of weather hurt cattle, as well as men.

That all of farming is summed up in the manure heap made on the farm.—F. G. in Prairie Farmer.

Harvesting Buckwheat.—Buckwheat is the most peculiar of the grain family in the manner of its ripening—a considerable portion being in the milk state when another will be fully matured. The point is to cut it in that stage which will save the most, and this is when about half of the grain has turned brown. If the straw were less sensitive to cold than it is, harvesting might be delayed longer, but when stricken by frost the growth is entirely arrested and the straw disposed to an early decay, preventing any farther maturing of the grain. But, cut when a portion is in milk, and set up in bunches in the field, the juice of the straw, in which it is peculiarly rich, will cause the immature portions to ripen, and little will be lost by over-ripeness or a lack of it. The common grain cradle will be found the best implement for harvesting this grain, as it leaves the straw in a condition to be easily gathered in bunches for setting up for drying.

Eggs for Burns.—The white of an egg has proved of late the most efficacious remedy for burns. Seven or eight successive applications of this substance soothes pain and effectually excludes the burned parts from the air. This simple remedy seems far preferable to collodion, or even cotton.

Blistered Hands and Feet.—The speediest remedy is to light a tallow candle and let the melted tallow drop in cold water, then mix the tallow with strong spirits and rub it thoroughly into the palms or soles, this is both a preventative and curative.

Potato Yeast.—Boil eight potatoes, mash them fine; add to them a pint of sifted flour, two tablespoonfuls of brown sugar, half a tablespoonful of salt, three pints boiling water. When cold, add a cup full of hot yeast. When fermented, put in a jar and cork tight.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Keep constantly in the tool-house a dry cloth and an oiled one. When a tool is brought in, as it always is when the day's work is done, it is cleaned and wiped with the dry cloth. If it is not to be used the next day, the oiled cloth is then rubbed over it. Whenever a plow or cultivator is not to be used the following day, it is brought in and cleaned. By pursuing this course through the summer every instrument is kept bright and ready for use. In addition to this, hoes, shovels, spades, etc., are kept sharp. All this time use lard oil, but when there is no further use for plows or cultivators, give them a good coat of linseed oil. This forms a covering that is impervious to moisture, and the tool is as bright in the spring as when laid away in the fall.

A Canada farmer gives his experience in destroying the thistle that so much abounds in the Dominion, in this wise: After the land was well saturated with moisture, I put some women to draw them by hand, defending the hand with stout gloves, with a piece of old sacking sewed over the palm to prevent the plant from slipping when the gloves became wet. With a very little care the thistle may be drawn with six or eight inches of the root; and I was rid of the nuisance in two seasons, which had for many previous years bid defiance to repeated mowings and cuttings under the surface with a spud.

To keep grapes through winter take boxes the size of candle boxes; nail pieces across the ends to lay slats on; put in the bottom a newspaper. Have ready a dish of hot sealing wax, and dip the ends of the stems in this. Put in a layer in the box carefully, then a paper, then put in your slats, then a paper, then grapes again, and so on till full, not more than three layers in a box. Nail up tight; keep in a cool, dry place, until cold weather; then place in a dry cellar. Grapes in this way will keep till March.

A correspondent of the American Agriculturist furnishes this recipe for making soap: For one barrel of soap, pour into a strong barrel four patent pailfuls of lye that will bear up an egg; add thirty pounds of melted grease (previously tried and strained), and mix well together. Let stand a few hours and then stir thoroughly. As soon as the soap begins to thicken, add weak lye, one or two pailfuls at a time, until the barrel is full. Be sure to stir the soap thoroughly each time the lye is added, and afterward stir once or twice daily for three days.

A correspondent of the Rural New Yorker, believes that the wrinkles in a cow's horns do not show the number of years it has seen, but the number of times it has shed its coat. He thinks the first wrinkle appears when the animal sheds its hair the third time, and thereafter one is added every time it goes through that experience.

The Journal of Agriculture predicts that wheat will advance somewhat rather than decline in price, within the next twelve months, and advises the sowing of wheat.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Recruits.—A detachment of fifteen were taken to the Work House yesterday afternoon.

Educational.—The Central Board of Education will hold a meeting in their new rooms on Fourth avenue this afternoon at two o'clock.

Held for Trial.—Michael Domer was held to bail for his appearance at Court to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred before Justice Ammon yesterday by Joseph Kenning.

Disorderly Conduct.—B. Kroneheimer made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging John Ackerman with disorderly conduct. A warrant was issued.

Assault and Battery.—Cressella Stevens made information before Justice Heisel yesterday, charging Wm. Thomas with assault and battery. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Collision.—A collision occurred yesterday morning about eight o'clock on the railroad bridge over the Allegheny river between a freight and passenger train, but owing to the very slow rate of speed at which both trains were moving, very little damage was done.

Emancipation Day.—The anniversary of Lincoln's Proclamation of Emancipation will be honored by citizens of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and adjoining cities, on Wednesday, 22d, by a procession, addresses, and a banquet, for which due preparations have been made.

The Parepa Troupe.—We take great pleasure in announcing that, on the 18th of October next, the great Parepa Rose English Opera Troupe will commence a season of one week at the Academy of Music. The musical treats offered will be of the richest description.

Knocked Down.—Barney Entley made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Martin Vogel with assault and battery. He alleges that he met Martin in a tavern in Birmingham when the defendant knocked him down. Warrant issued.

G. A. R.—The members of Gen. Alex. Hays Post, No. 3, D. P., G. A. R., who desire to avail themselves of the Grand Army Co-Operative Life Insurance are requested to call on Lee S. Smith, No. 129 Smithfield street, during the present week.

Fire.—A slight fire occurred about eight o'clock yesterday morning in the Musgrave building, on Sixth street. An alarm was struck from box 12 and the engines of the Second District responded but did not go into service, the flames having been extinguished before their arrival.

Runaway.—A two-horse team belonging to Smith's brewery, Allegheny, run away about half past eleven o'clock yesterday morning. The driver was backing his team into the yard at the Adams Express Depot, corner Seventh avenue and Grant street, when the king bolt came out, separating the front carriage from the wagon, which freightened the horses and they dashed down Seventh avenue at a frightful pace taking the two front wheels of the wagon with them. At Liberty street they collided with a dray, and were brought to a stand-still.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE: The correspondents of the GAZETTE and Chronicle should supplement their enumeration of the attractious of South Common, West of Federal street. All the old nuisances seem to be immovable, and under the kind forbearance of the authorities one cart load of stale manure, and several loads of ashes nave just been superadded to the mortar beds and heaps of sand and lime before specified. The Park Commissioners about to visit other parks in the east, may safely defy them all to equal the South Common section of the Allegheny Park either in quantity, variety or nastiness of the surface embellishments. POSTSCRIPT.

The Avondale Sufferers—Adjourned Public Meeting.

Pursuant to call, an adjourned meeting of citizens was held at Wilkins Hall yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of taking action relative to the collection of money for the sufferers by the Avondale disaster. The attendance was small.

Hon. J. K. Moorhead was called to the chair, but vacated it upon the appearance of Bishop Kerfoot, who presided at the previous meeting.

On motion, His Honor, Mayor Brush, was made treasurer of the fund to be raised, and to receive all donations.

A communication addressed to the Mayor from Rodef Scholam Congregation was read, acknowledging the receipt of a printed circular asking their co-operation at the meeting, but stating that by the terms of the call they were excluded, as the "call had been issued and signed for this influential Christian community: but that as charity has always been a most prominent feature of all Jewish communities, and to relieve distress a main law in our holy religion, this congregation, or the Jews of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, will raise their mite for this laudable object, and when collected will forward such to your Honor;" adding that a meeting of Jewish citizens had already been called for the purpose.

The communication was received.

Mr. Jacob Dressell, delegate from St. Paul's Lutheran Congregation of East Birmingham, reported that a congregational meeting would be held on Wednesday evening and the action taken duly reported.

It was stated the Welsh people had been making collections in the coal mines and manufactories in and about the city, were still collecting, and would pay over the funds to the custodian appointed by the meeting.

Hon. J. K. Moorhead offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That all congregations, corporations, clubs, associations, firms and individuals within the bounds of Allegheny county be requested to collect and make such donations to this object as seems to them proper, and pay the money to the Mayor of this city, Hon. Jared M. Brush, on or before the 6th of October, to be by him forwarded to the proper person.

It was suggested that the donations be acknowledged through the city papers, and the announcement was made that such would be done.

There being no further business, and a motion to adjourn made by Dr. Douglas, the worthy Chairman made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion. He said that in case of failure to respond liberally to the present call for charity, the citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity would be lacking in an evident duty.

The meeting then adjourned.

CITY COUNCILS.

Special Meeting—The New Water Works—Report of Water Committee.

A special meeting of the Select and Common Councils of the city was held yesterday, Monday, September 20th, at two o'clock P. M., to take action on the report of the Water Committee, laid over at last meeting.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Members present—Messrs. Ahl, Armstrong, Brown, Burgwin, Coffin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gallaher, Gross, Hailman, Hartman, Jones, Kehew, Kirk, Laufman, Little, Lloyd, Morrow, Murray, McClelland, McEwen, McMahon, Phillips, Rafferty, Rees, Schmidt, Scully, Shipton, J. S. Wainwright, Z. Wainwright, Watson, White, Wilson, Zern and McAuley, President.

The President stated the object of the meeting.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Coffin from the Water Committee called up the ordinance relative to a new water works, laid over at a previous meeting and moved its third reading and final passage.

Mr. Morrow called for the reading of the ordinance.

Mr. Laufman asked for information how much land the Committee proposed to buy.

Mr. Coffin, Chairman of the Committee, replied that it was proposed to purchase 102 acres.

Mr. Laufman desired to know further what price was to be paid for the same.

Mr. Shipton in answer to this question replied that the price asked was $400 per acre for the 102 acres, and $1,000 per arcre for the fifty acres of coal land, which were now being worked.

After some further interrogations and answers, Mr. Shipton sent for the proposition of the owners of the land, which was read by the Clerk, as follows:

TO THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Gentlemen:

In response to yours of the 13th inst., we agree to sell to the city of Pittsburgh the following property situated on Shades Run, and bounded by lands of Coleman Ireland, Hartman and Ashton, containing about 102 acres and having thereon a stone quarry, one storehouse and dwelling and ninety-two miners' houses, for the sum of $400 per acre; also all the coal under said land, and the land of Thomas Chadwick, dec'd., supposed to be about fifty-three acres, together with the pit, cars, railroad and incline plane, all now in successful working order, for the sum of $1,000 per acre; the number of acres of said coal to be determined by survey.

If the price of the land is not satisfactory, we will agree to submit it to disinterested parties, mutually chosen by the city and the undersigned. We will accept in payment for the above the bonds of the city of Pittsburgh at par, bearing seven per cent. interest.

Respectfully submitted,
W. COLEMAN,
F. RAHM.

The following proposition also accompanied the above:

GENTLEMEN: I will also sell, if desired by the city, fifty-one acres adjoining the above, with the improvements, consisting of one tenement house, dwelling and barn, now occupied by Mr. Doak, for the sum of $600 per acre, and will take the bonds of the city at par, bearing seven per cent. interest.

This proposition is open for your acceptance twelve months.

Yours truly, W. COLEMAN.

Mr. Gross moved to amend the motion to pass the ordinance as follows: "Provided, however, that the city take none but black merchantable coal."

The amendment was accepted.

Mr. Burgwin thought the matter before Council a very important one, and the Committee having had the matter under consideration for over eighteen months, had given a very meagre report of the matter. He thought the Committee should have given a full and complete report of what they intended to do, and also given an analysis of the water of both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers. He then offered the following as a substitute for the ordinance offered by the Water Committee.

That the Water Committee be instructed to employ a competent corps of civil engineers, and also some eminent Hydraulic engineer with a view of ascertaining the relative adaptability of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers to afford a full supply of pure water for the use of the city for the next twenty-five years. That in such examination regard be had to the water capacity of the two rivers, the system for supply and reserve, with the estimated cost. That the said Committee also have the waters of the two rivers thoroughly analyzed by competent chemists, and that they report the result of the whole at as early a day as practicable.

Mr. Littell objected to the substitute in a lengthy speech.

Mr. Kirk favored the amendment to a certain extent.

Mr. Hailman, Mr. Gross and Mr. Gallaher followed, all favoring the Allegheny river.

Mr. Gross moved that the substitute offered by Mr. Burgwin be laid on the table.

Mr. Burgwin called for the yeas and nays. The vote was as follows:

Ayes—Ahl, Armstrong Brown, Coffin, Craig, Dickison, Edwards, Gallaher, Gross, Hailman, Jones, Kehew, Littell, Lloyd, Morrow, McClelland, McMahon, Rafferly, Reese, Schmidt, Shipton, Wainwright, S. J., Wainwright, Z., Watson, White, Wilson, Zern.—27.

Nays—Burgwin, Hartman, Kirk, Laufman, Murray, McEwen, Phillips, Schully, Prest. McAuley—9.

So the substitute was laid on the table.

Mr. Shipton moved the final passage of the ordinance. Adopted.

Mr. Coffin presented the report of the Water Committee for last year, accompanying which, was a resolution authorizing the publication of the report in pamphlet form.

The report was accepted and the resolution adopted.

Mr. White presented a petition for an iron clad building on Boyd's Hill, in the Sixth Ward. Referred to the Committee on Wooden buildings.

Mr. Loyd presented a remonstrance against the construction of a sewer on Third avenue. Accepted.

On motion adjourned.

C. was accepted, in laying over ordinance exempting residents of rural districts of vehicle licenses, which in S. C. was read three times and passed, all of which business was acted upon in Select Council, August 30, 1869, but not reached in C. C.

RECEPTION OF THE PIONEERS.

Mr. Batchelor presented a communication from Mayor Brush enclosing a letter form F. Knowland, of the Pacific Railway, in reference to the reception of an excursion party of two hundred, comprising some of the leading business men and representatives of the press of California, known as the State Pioneers' Association of '49 and '50, who are to pass through Pittsburgh on their way to Philadelphia and New York. Arrangements have been made in the cities named, together with Chicago, and it was suggested that Pittsburgh take action in the matter.

The communication was received and filed.

Mr. Batchelor offered a resolution instructing the Mayor to extend the hospitalities of the city to the "Pioneers."

Mr. McCandless wished to know if the resolution contemplated the entertaining of the excursion at the expense of the city.

Mr. Batchelor said the resolution gave no details, but left it discretionary with the Mayor, who was authorized by it, if necessary, to spend money. He thought Pittsburgh, as the first manufacturing city visited by the excursion, should certainly show some respect to them. The money if needed, could either be drawn from the Treasury or the Mayor might appoint a committee to secure the funds from manufacturers, who would doubtless be willing to contribute.

After some further discussion the resolution was passed,

Mr. McMasters offered a resolution authorizing the Street Committee to report an ordinance for paving Diamond Square with Nicolson pavement. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Weldon presented a petition accompanied by an ordinance for grading and paving Railroad street, which were laid over.

Also, petition for changing the width of Webster avenue. Laid on table.

The President now announced the desk clear for new business.

A motion to adjourn was here voted down, and Councils took a recess for ten minutes to await the action of Select Council on the Water Committee's report.

C. C. reconvened and not having any business before them, adjourned.

Female Diseases.

At the present day it is extremely rare to find a female who is entirely free from some one or the other of the diseases peculiar to her sex. Go where you will, on the mountain top or in the valley, in the hamlet or in the city, among the rich or the lowly, there will be found very few females who are not laboring under physical affliction peculiar to womanhood.

The cause of this we will not undertake to explain here. The numerous applications made to us for relief during our twenty years' practice, has long since induced us to make especial study and investigation of these diseases, and their best method of cure. They are maladies of a peculiar character, and as a general thing they require a method of treatment entirely unlike that adopted for those common to both sexes. In fact, the very frequency and extent of female diseases in our midst, is good evidence that the "common treatment" has not met with success, and shows that some more efficent course should be adopted.

We were long since convinced that local remedies and external appliances, bandages, &c., were mere palliatives for the time, and of no permanent value whatever, but oftimes injurious; and that an efficient course of medication was the only hope of cure.

For the benefit of those who may be afflicted with any disease peculiar to the sex, whether from a slight cold, followed by a derangement and irregularity of the general system, which many times producas cough, expectoration, tightness of chest, difficult breathing, palpitation, &c., with all the symptoms of "going into a decline," or from any of the very many other causes which produce such terrible suffering among women, as to make life a burden to them, we would say that our remedies are selected and prepared with a special view towards these ends, and will give relief in all these kinds of cases, without needless exposure to indelicate examinations, or the wearing of disagreeable instruments or cumbrous appliances.

We have cured hundreds—yes, thousands—of cases by medical treatment alone, hundreds of whom we have never seen, but who only obtained their medicines after having sent to us their cases for examination.

Our remedies in these diseases are mild but effectual, and are such as we have found out to act in conformity with the laws of nature in regulating health; and from the success which has almost invariably crowned our efforts in these cases, we can promise, and do promise, a speedy cure in every case where a reasonable hope can be entertained.

Especial attention is directed to the above. L. OLDSHUE, M. D.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The regular season at the Opera House opened last evening, on which occasion Guy Mannering was presented with Miss Emma Waller in the role of Meg Merrilles. The audience was a large and appreciative one, and the new company came fully up to the highest expectation. Mr. Chester, the leading man, in the role of Dandie Dinmont, was a success, and the same might be said of each individual member of the company. Miss Georgie Dickson, as Julia Mannering, and Mrs. S. K. Chester as Lucy Bertram, deserve especial notice. Miss Dickson made a decided hit, and received a full share of the applause. Her singing is superior to anything we have had in her line of business, and she is a most charming actress. Mrs. Chester is a fine reader and dresses with excellent taste. To-night, "Elizabeth, Queen of England" will be presented with Emma Waller in the title role.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—A large audience greeted Mr. James Taylor at the old Theatre last evening, and of course everybody was pleased with the entertainment. This afternoon a Matinee will be given, the entire proceeds of which will be appropriated to the relief of the widows and orphans of the men who perished in the Avondale coal mine during the recent disaster. An opportunity is thus offered to all who sympathize with these unfortunate persons, to render them assistance, and we hope to see the house crowded to its utmost capacity. The regular entertainment will be given this evening.

THE GREGRY'S.—The Academy o Music was crowded from pit to dome last night by the admirers of the Gregroy tronpe. The entertainment was ananticipated, was excellent, and we have no doubt they will continue to draw large houses.

An Irish Dinner.

"Will ye dine with me to-morrow?" said a Hibernian to his friend. "Faith an' I will, with all my heart." "Remimber, it's only a family dinner I'm asking ye to." "And what for not? A family dinner is a mighty plisant thing. What have ye got?" "Och! nothing by common; jist an illegant piece ef corned bafe and potatoes." "By the powers! that bates the world. Jist my own dinner to a hair—barrin the beef!" The joke was told in T. Tobias' mammoth clothing establishment, last Saturday, and took well with the large crowd of purchasers who were in waiting, inspecting and purchasing in the store. The stock of piece good and ready made clothing now offered at T. Tobias', 25 Sixth street, is superior in quality and quantity, and sold at more reasonable prices than the goods in any other clothing house in the city. This week the grand fall opening will take place Saturday, September 25.
